

CALL FOR PAPERS
Academy of Aphasia 53nd Annual Meeting

October 18-20, 2015
Tucson, AZ, USA

Dear Colleague:

This year marks the 53nd Annual Meeting of the Academy of Aphasia.

The Academy of Aphasia welcomes submissions of original experimental, clinical, theoretical, and historical research from any field that contributes to the study of aphasia, including Speech-Language Pathology, Psychology, Neurology, Cognitive Neuroscience, Linguistics, History, and Computational Modeling.

Submission categories include: platform papers; poster presentations; symposia bringing together researchers working on a common research theme; and mini-workshops with a methodological emphasis, presenting a unique approach to a timely topic. Submissions are accepted from both members and non-members of the Academy and all submissions are given equal consideration.

Submissions must be uploaded by 12:00, noon Central Daylight Time on Friday May 01, 2015. There will be no exceptions to this submission deadline.

As we did last year, we will be using Frontiers for both abstract submission and abstract publication.

Please note that you will be required to register for a Frontiers account in order to submit an abstract. To submit an abstract, go to http://www.frontiersin.org/events/Academy_of_Aphasia_53rd_Annual_Meeting/2820 and log in to your Frontiers account. Follow the instructions in the “guidelines” document. Accepted abstracts will be published online in a special issue of Frontiers.

The meeting will be held at the: Westward Look Wyndham Grand Resort and Spa
